RECORD CROWD IN ATTENDANDE AT STATE FAIR

PROGRAMME IS VARIED

Horticultural and Live Stock Exhibits Excite Admiration of Visitors.

Sacramento—The greatest crowd to attend any one day of the sixty-sixth California State Fair, passed through the gates to attend the Sacramento day program, Monday. Conservative estimates place the attendance at 35,000.

The weather was clear and cool and the crowds gathered early. By noon the great grounds were virtually packed, and when the races were called in the early afternoon, many were unable to find seats in the grandstands. Hundreds stood and many sat on cushions on the ground.

Due to the efforts of the Chamber of Commerce, Ad Club, Retail Merchants' Association and other organizations, the program reveals everything that could be brought into play in demonstrating the breadth and scope of the big show—amusement, recreational and educational features and the resources of mine, ranch and shop.

The completeness of the horticultural exhibits in the main building is exciting the admiration of visitors who in past years have waited until the middle of the opening week because of the failure of exhibits to have their booths in readiness.

The live stock exhibitions are attracting much interest.

In the 1920 engineering competitions the victory of the Pacific destroyers was the most notable scored in years, six of the Western boats being mentioned among the first eight cited by the Bureau of Steam Engineering. The Biddle of the Atlantic fleet was first, but officers of the Pacific destroyer squadron assert that this vessel had a decided advantage because it had a permanent crew and participated in no maneuvers. The Biddle had been cruising in European waters.

PACKERS WANT PRODUCERS TO CONTROL YARDS

Plan Offered Court Provides for Sale of Properties in Fifteen Cities.

Washington—Ultimate ownership of the great stockyards by livestock dealers and producers is proposed by the "Big Five" meat packing companies in a plan for disposition of their yard holdings filed in the District of Columbia Supreme Court.

Sale of the packers' interests in the stockyards was necessitated by a recent court decree compelling the packing companies to divest themselves of all ownership of yards, terminal railways and market newspapers.

An option of sale of the packer stockyard interests to F. H. Prince & Co., Boston capitalists, was made a part of the record filed here.

The Boston company is obligated, under its option, to take over the entire interest of the "Big Five" in fifteen important market places. The company proposes formation of a holding company which will offer its securities to persons who produce and sell livestock and will provide these persons with representation in the management of the properties.

BIG STATE POWER PLAN MADE PUBLIC

Los Angeles—A fifteen-year program, involving the expenditure of $200,000,000 in the development of 750,000 horsepower of electric energy from the waters of the Kern and San Joaquin rivers, Big Creek and Huntington, Shaver and Florence lakes, was announced by the Southern California Edison Company.

R. H. Ballard, general manager, in making the announcement, said that, according to figures advanced by chambers of commerce in ten counties in which the company operates, it would be necessary to develop 50,000 horsepower of hydro-electric energy a year to keep abreast of the estimated demands of increasing population. He said the program called for an electric plant on Kern river with a generating capacity of 40,000 horsepower; an addition of 22,000 horsepower on the company's second plant on Big Creek, and a new Big Creek plant of 30,000 horsepower, early next year.

FIRE IN TUNNEL TIES UP TRAINS

Fresno—The San Joaquin valley was entirely cut off from Southern California, as far as railroad freight traffic is concerned, as the result of the burning of a tunnel on the Southern Pacific line near Caliente, in the Tehachapi mountains, according to an announcement made Monday night from the local office of the Santa Fe, which uses this line jointly with the Southern Pacific in crossing the Tehachapi. Sparks from a hot box set fire to a car of lime, and this spread to the tunnel.

Local passenger traffic between Los Angeles and San Joaquin valley points will be detoured around the tunnel. Through passenger traffic to or from San Francisco or eastern points will be carried over the coast route or via the Western Pacific.

MRS. H YOUNG INJURED

Mrs. Henry Young was the victim of a most unfortunate accident on Saturday afternoon, when she was hit by an auto in San Jose and suffered a fracture of the right leg.

In company with Mrs. A. E. Wood she was crossing South Market street near Black's Package Store, when a car driven by Walter Carder ran into her. She was treated by Dr. Paul Sanford and later removed to Columbia hospital where she is resting as well as may be. Beside the fracture of the lower limb there was a bad flesh wound in the same region.

Mrs. Young has the sympathy of her many friends during her convalescence which the doctors say will take three months.

SANTA CLARA VALLEY EXCELLS

World Traveler Longs for One More Look from the Hills Above Saratoga

Several years ago Rose Wilder Lane, passing up the Santa Clara Valley, spent a night at the R. V. Garrod home in the hills. She was a special writer for the San Francisco Bulletin, writing in her own way a story of "The Embattled Farmers" as she traveled among them. Mrs. Garrod recently received a letter from her, dated at Paris, in which she says:

"The more I see of the world the more convinced I am that you live in the loveliest and best part of it . I don't know why anyone who has seen and known California ever leaves it again; a hundred times a day I marvel at the strange stupidity that takes happy people wandering to places that are not happy. Paris is beautiful and old and gay as very tired, feverish people are gay; Geneva is old and as incredibly, unreally beautiful as a stage-setting or a World's Fair city; Vienna is stately and starving to death; Prague is colorful and romantic and quaint. But I would exchange them all for the view from the top of the hills above your house. Look again some morning for me."

THE SUBSTANTIAL CITIZEN

The American home is the cornerstone of the nation. It promotes the stability of the family, stimulates the love of our country, and is the best safeguard of law and order in society. Few people really like to live in hotels and apartment houses or eat in a restaurant in preference to the enjoyments of a home, but many do so because of barriers of one kind and another which stand in the way of the home. Building costs are more than offset by high rents being charged. Home building today is a business the same as banking and any energetic man can finance a home through a long time loan if he wishes. The ownership of a bit of real estate is a fine thing from every point of view. It gives the holder a standing and a self respect he would not otherwise have. It promotes businesss confidence in him and makes him one of the substantial upstanding pillars of the community. Begin it today. Own your own home. Get into line to be the solid citizen of tomorrow.

San Jose, Cal., Sept. 1, 1920.

Editor Press,

Dear Sir:—I desire to thank your paper and my friends and the citizens of your community generally, for their generous and very much appreciated support of my candidacy for the office of Judge of the Superior Court.

Very sincerely yours,
P. F. GOSBEY.

STATE UNIVERSITY WILL FURNISH MOVING PICTURE REELS

Some 233 motion picture reels on varied topics of wide interest are now available at the University of California Extension Division for use throughout the state The films include industrial and scenic views from all parts of the world, an interesting assortment of motion pictures of the war, and on general topics.

Community singing is to receive a real impetus in California this year through the efforts of the Extension Division of the University of California, according to Director Leon J. Richardson, who announced plans whereby the Extension Division can cooperate with any community in preparing, aiding, and presentng programs of national music.

Clubs, schools, community organizations or other bodies wishing to give an entertainment in music of any nationality—America, England, Scotland and Ireland, Russia, France, Italy, Germany, Spain, the Orient, Scandinavia, Poland—may apply to the Extension Division, which will send a lecturer to the community to give an interesting illustrated talk on the life and customs, arts, and music of the folk of the particular nation.

Aid is also given in the preparation of the musical program. Local talent may be trained along lines suggested by the University Extension Division. If desired, soloists selected from among the best musicians in California may be assigned by the Extension Division to assist the community and to take the more prominent parts in the song festivals.

PUNCTUALITY

Once a man with a grip rushed up to the stationmaster, shouting: "Can I catch the 10:20 for Boston?"

"Yes," came the reply, "if you run fast enough. It pulled out two minutes ago."

The next train would leave twelve hours later.

Two minutes late wasn't much late.

But it might as well have been twelve hours late as far as the train schedule was concerned.

Punctuality has not only to do with catching trains. It has to do with your life's schedule.

Promptness in keeping appointments, in reporting for duty, in performing one's work, is appreciated.

Punctuality can be made a habit.

Get the habit!—From "Success in Business," by William Ganson Rose.

HUNGER KNOWS NO ARMISTICE IN CAUCASUS

Colonel Haskell Reports to Near East Relief on Desperate Needs of Helpless.

"Peace may come elsewhere in the world, but hunger knows no armistice in the Near East," says Colonel William N. Haskell, Allied high commission in the Trans-Caucasus, in an appeal to Near East Relief, 1 Madison avenue, New York city, for food and supplies for the relief of the starving millions.

Colonel Haskell is in charge of all operations and disbursements of Near East Relief in the Caucasus.

"There is no fuel or shelter for the greater part of them during the terrible winter in the mountains," he says, "and the existing food supply is entirely inadequate for the great number of refugees without resources of any kind.

"By a recent agreement between the premiers of the republics of Armenia, Azerbaidjan and Georgia to cease hostilities and settle all differences by arbitration one obstacle to relief work in the Caucasus has been removed and makes accessible a great number of destitute people who otherwise would perish this winter.

"Two hundred thousand destitute Armenians and Tartars can now be reached in the districts of Karabagh, Shusha and Nakhichevan, in the southeast section of the Trans-Caucasus, and we are planning to extend our work there. The economic situation is so desperate and food supplies so scanty that the Georgians have ordered 100,000 persons, mainly Russian refugees without employment, to leave the city of Tiflis. About 45,000 workers in the oil fields of Baku have been ordered by the Azerbaidjahese to leave the city because there is no work for them and food is scarce.

Around every station along the railway are gathered groups of hundreds of homeless people lying huddled together on the ground, the majority of them too weak even to try to help themselves. From time to time the stronger ones climb on freight cars and move elsewhere, always seeking better conditions, which do not exist. Two hundred and sixty-three thousand homeless refugees from Turkish Armenia thus are constantly milling about throughout Russian Armenia, making the relief work conducted by the Americans a problem requiring infinite patience and organizing ability.

"This is especially true in view of the existence of 248,000 destitute inhabitants of Russian Armenia who possess homes, but no food, as well as 150,000 Greeks, Russians, Persians, Syrians and Yezidis who have been driven out of parts of Transcaucasia.

"One hundred and forty thousand Moslems, whose villages were destroyed in the course of five years of constant warfare, are helplessly encamped in the open around villages of their former enemies, begging infinitesimal quantities of flour, which they mix with dirt to give the illusion of nourishment.

"These hundreds of thousands of suffering adults, mostly homeless and lacking every necessity of life, having nothing more to lose, are concentrated in a country as yet inadequately policed or governed. They constitute a fertile field for the seeds of Bolshevism or any form of anarchy, the spread of which once loosed would be impossible to predict.

"It is generally admitted in the Caucasus that the Americans of the Near East Relief already have saved the lives of at least 30,000 babies and children and of 500,000 adult refugees and destitute. This work still is continuing."

In an effort to procure funds to carry on the work and save the lives of these hundreds of thousands who otherwise will die of starvation and exposure Near East Relief, of which Cleveland H. Dodge is treasurer, is making an appeal to the American people.

A Year-Round Necessity

Some people think a safe deposit box is only necessary to house their papers and valuables while they are away for the summer. This is a mistake. Bu g - lars work the year round. Fires occur in fall and winter, too. The only absolute protection all the time is a safe deposit box in the vaults of this bank.

Last Call For Jars

The greatest demand for jars is at the last of the season. By this time the home stock of fruit jars is filled, and the housekeepers unitedly call on their grocer for more containers.

This collective demand exhausts the available supply very quickly. Every season somebody, for lack of jars, goes without sufficient canned fruit. We are anxious this year that that somebody shall not be you.

Let this call stimulate your interest in canning and preserving. Count the jars you have now, decide on your needs for the season, and send us your order--to-day.

Power on the Farm

In addition to horsepower and manpower, the average farm needs machine-power to run things in an efficient way and secure desired results.

It is also just as important that the farmer have at his command money-power to use on his farm,—money-power in the form of a working capital that he can direct to any required purpose at such times as needed.

Working capital is a necessary part of farm equipment,—it is power that aids you to do things. Cash capital in the form of a personal checking account furnishes a means to keep farm operations running smoothly and at full force. Cash is then at your command so that farm plans will not stall.

It is not only important that you have a working capital ready for immediate use at any time and place, but convenience, accuracy and every possible protection.

A Growers National Bank checking account will fit into your farm plans without friction, and from the time you use this service, you increase your ability to carry forward your plans.

LUMBER MARKET SLOW

Seattle, Sept. 9.—Although the lumber industry of the Northwest is facing what manufacturers believe to be adverse conditions because of freight rate dicerentials in Eastern markets, there will be no reduction in wages or return to the ten hour day, according to lumber men here today, who returned from a conference in Tacoma last night. Several hundred sawmill operators of Washington and Oregon attended the meeting.

It developed at the meeting that the lumber business is at a lower ebb than it has been in years and that new orders are almost unknown. The only bright outlook was the announcement that one railroad is preparing to order 3,000,000 feet of car stock, but it was pointed out that this order would not bring much relef to an industry producing 15,000,000 feet a day.

How to Avoid Tire Trouble

Weekly Hints to Tire Users

By E. T. WALKER

NO. 4. CURBS.

Auto drivers will avert considerable trouble by exercising a little care in the way they drive up to the curb. The impetus of the moving car, added to the weight of the car, is sufficient to strike a terrific blow to the fabric in a tire.

This break may not cause trouble for several hundred miles when suddenly the tire blows out with no apparent cause for doing so.

Scraping along a curb in driving away is also injurious to the fabric in the side walls.

WINE AGENT IS NO MORE

Today's Lothario Is Chap Who Sells Near-Beer.

Not so long ago a favorite tale was that of an elderly wine agent and the innocent young thing. Today it is that of the young near-beer agent and a woman with children nearly as old as he. Truly romance has changed, if not perished!

Three or four months ago the wife of Henry Huntington, a wealthy farmer of Area, Lake county, Illinois, left home, husband and grown son and daughter. She is in her middle forties and comely.

Early the other morning a detective employed by Henry found her in an apartment in Aurora, Ill. She tried, vainly, to hold him at the door. But she and Henry Jaros, twenty-four-year-old near-beer agent, who had been known as "Henry Huntington" at the apartment, went to the police station together, where they were booked on a serious charge and held for bail of $1 000 each. Jaros was out the next day. But Mrs. Huntington was still awaiting bond.

JUNIOR RED CROSS WORKING AT HOME

Production of Sound American Citizenship the First Aim, Says Dr. Farrand.

On the badge of every member of the Junior Red Cross are the words "I Serve." That tells the story of the school children's branch of the American Red Cross and its efforts to bring happiness to children throughout the world

Realizing that the time never was so propitious as right now for teaching the highest ideals of citizenship, the entire present program of the Junior Red Cross has been framed under the very inclusive phrase, "Training for Citizenship Through Service" for others. Since the Junior Red Cross is the agency through which the American Red Cross reaches the schoolboys and the schoolgirls, all its activities are designed to come within the regular school program, and without creating new courses or increasing the number of studies to lend its aid in vitalizing the work of the schools.

"The thing that is needed," says Dr. Livingston Farrand, Chairman of the American Red Cross Central Committee, "is not a perpetuation of the Junior Red Cross, but the training and breeding of sound American citizenship inspired by the true, fundamental ideals of sound democracy. One of the great conceptions in making the Red Cross a contributor to better citizenship in our American democracy is the realization that after all the sole hope of any nation is with the children of the country."

The plan of organization of the Junior Red Cross makes the school—public, parochial and private—the unit, not the individual pupils. Mutual service, helpful community work such as clean-up campaigns, care of the sick, promotion of health regulations, participation in civic and patriotic movements—all these creative agencies designed to translate into life and action the regular school program are parts of the machinery which the Junior Red Cross places at the disposal of the school authorities.

Graded study courses giving practical methods of civic training, supplemented by pamphlets and helpful suggestions, are supplied to the local schools by the Junior Red Cross. An elaborate plan for promoting an interchange of correspondence between children in different sections of the United States as well as with children in foreign lands is being devised and will take a prominent place in the established classroom program.

In promoting the general cause of child welfare, Red Cross courses in home hygiene and care of the sick, first aid, and dieting may be established in all Junior Red Cross Auxiliaries.

The ideals and the objective of the Junior Red Cross are embodied in the pledge of service which the pupil takes when he signs the membership roll and pins on his coat the Junior's badge. The pledge which binds together service and citizenship reads:

"We will seek in all ways to live up to the ideals of the Junior Red Cross and devote ourselves to its service.

"We will strive never to bring discredit to this, our country, by any unworthy act.

"We will revere and obey our country's laws and do our best to inspire a like reverence and obedience in those about us.

"We will endeavor in all these ways, as good citizens, to transmit America greater, better and more beautiful than she was transmitted to us."

At the foundation of this school program of the Junior Red Cross is a great love for America's children.

RED CROSS ACTIVE IN DISASTER RELIEF

When disaster hits a community—fire, flood, earthquake, explosion, bad wreck or tornado—the American Red Cross can be depended upon to follow right at its heels with help for the stricken people. Red Cross relief is almost immediately forthcoming—food, clothing, shelter and funds; doctors, nurses and special workers with long experience in handling similar trouble elsewhere.

During the last year, ending June 30, there was an average of four disasters a month in the United States. One hundred and fifty communities in twenty-seven states suffered. The largest and most destructive of these were the tidal wave at Corpus Christi, Texas, and tornadoes in Mississippi, Louisiana, Alabama, Georgia, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois.

In these events of horror 850 persons were killed, 1,500 were injured, 13,000 were made homeless, about 30,000 families needed help, the property loss was nearly $100,000,000 and almost $1,000,000 in relief funds, not including emergency supplies was expended.

To the sufferers from all disasters during the year, the American Red Cross sent $120,000 worth of supplies, 110 Red Cross nurses and seven special relief trains. To meet the needs of the stricken, the organization set up ten relief stations, operated thirty food canteens and as many emergency hospitals. One hundred and twenty-five Red Cross chapters gave disaster relief service.

If disaster ever strikes this town or county, the citizens can be absolutely sure the Red Cross will be right on hand to help them in every way.

IRISH PATRIOT'S FRIENDS SPURN LIBERTY OFFER

WIFE ASKS U. S. BOYCOTT

Lord Mayor Unable to End Murders in Erin, as Asked, Is Contention.

London—Lord Mayor MacSwiney of Cork passed a rather restless and feverish Tuesday in Brixton jail, but otherwise his condition, due to his prolonged hunger strike, was unchanged.

Premier Lloyd George's suggestion for the release of MacSwiney and other hunger strikers, conditional on a guarantee of the cessation of murders of policemen in Ireland, seems not to be regarded either here or in Dublin as providing any practical issue for the breaking of the deadlock between the Government and the dissident Irishmen.

Lord Mayor MacSwiney's friends declare that it would be impossible for MacSwiney to give such guarantee. Even if he could do so, they say, the reprisals by the police, such as the burning of creameries and other acts of destruction, enter into the question.

NEW CIVIL WAR IN CHINA GROWS IN MAGNITUDE

Kwang-tung Province Troops Surround Waichow, Say Peking Dispatches.

Peking—The new civil war against the Canton Military Government by General Tang Chi-yao, Yunnan leader, is growing in magnitude. Kwang-tung province troops were reported to have surrounded Waichow, 100 miles east of Canton. Taking advantage of the engagement of Kwangsi province troops in defending Waichow, General Tang is reported preparing to invade Kwangsi province from several routes through Yunnan province, supported by General Li Hsein-Shin, military governor of Kweichow province.

General Lu Yungting, War Minister of the Canton Military Government, is hastily mobilizing Cantonese forces for defense of Kwangsi province against invasion by Tang's Yunnan forces.

General Tang has informed the Peking Central Government that peace negotiations between the southwest provinces and the north will not be resumed until the Canton Military Government has been suppressed.

Wrangel Army Badly Beaten, Reds Declare

Paris—The Russian soviet official statement from Moscow for September 6 declares that General Wrangel, who had assumed the offensive on the south Russian front, was repulsed by the soviet forces and that the Wrangel army sustained heavy losses, including three tanks.

London—The league of nations is considering the Polish Government's appeal in the Polish Lithuanian dispute. Unless an improvement occurs in the situation, Poland will be compelled to declare war on Lithuania, the appeal states.

The communication declares an unprovoked attack had been made on the Polish troops by Lithuanian forces.

The Polish demand is, the note indicates, that the Lithuanian troops evacuate Polish territory within a few days.

SUFFRAGE VOTE RECONSIDERED IN TENNESSEE

AUTHORITY QUESTIONED

State Attorney-General Holds Change Is Impossible Since Certified by Governor.

Nashville, Tenn.—The Tennessee House of Representatives, with a quorum present for the first time since August 20, expunged from its journal Tuesday all record of ratification of the federal suffrage amendment and voted, 47 to 24, with 20 not voting, to non-concur in the action of the senate in ratifying the amendment.

Governor Roberts upon being notified of the house's action declined to make any statement other than to say that the situation could only be dealt with in a legal manner and was in the hands of Attorney General Thompson. The latter, in a letter read on the house floor during a discussion of the matter of reconsidering the vote, expressed the opinion that reconsideration of the resolution of ratification was impossible since the house already had adopted it and Governor Roberts had certified to Secretary of State Colby this action by both house and senate.

State officials and members of the legislature expressed the belief that legality or illegality of the ratification would be decided upon the record certified to Washington by Governor Roberts and not on the action taken Tuesday.
